THE COMMEMORATION PARADE AND CEREMONY

The Ex-Members of the 5th Division A.I.F., and many of their relatives, also representatives of the Returned Services League, the War Widows Guild and others participated in the Ceremony of Remembrance. Many of the Ex-Members and relatives came from other States and despite the weather conditions which prevailed during the earlier part of the day, more than 800 veterans were on parade and many of their comrades whose disabilities prevented their attendance on the Parade, joined in the Ceremony.

While the men were assembling in Hyde Park near the statue of Captain Cook, the Eastern Command Band rendered the music of the songs of the 1914-18 War period and during the interlude which preceded the March, an oration on the history of the Division was delivered by Mr. Bryson Taylor from the steps of The Anzac Memorial Shrine for the benefit of our relatives and the guests who were seated along the northern end of The Pool of Remembrance. This oration was followed by the March of the Veterans led by the Band and the Unit Banners; the column divided when it reached the end of the pathway and the men took up their positions along both sides of The Pool of Remembrance facing inward.

The Ceremony of Remembrance commenced at 11 o'clock with a rendition by the Band of The National Anthem. The Wreath Party consisting of the Parade Commander, Brigadier W. E. Smith, MC., ED., Major-General L. Beavis, CB., CBE., DSO., Brigadier H. Bachtold, DSO., MC., and Mr. Arthur Hall, VC., moved up the steps to the entrance to The Shrine and the wreath was laid by Brigadier Bachtold. The Buglers sounded The Last Post and after observance of The Silence, Mr. Bryson Taylor recited "In Flanders Fields" which was followed by "The Ode to the Fallen" and the responses by those on parade; the Bugler then sounded "Reveille". The Ceremony at The Shrine terminated with the playing of the French National Anthem. The men marched away from The Pool of Remembrance to take part in The Final Tribute where they stood in formation along the pathway which leads back to the Assembly Area and faced West during the rendering by the Band of "The Recessional."

We who were privileged to participate in this Ceremony will always remember with pride and humility the atmosphere of reverence which was maintained throughout each of its phases.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
 That mark our place; and in the sky
 The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
 Loved and were loved, and now we lie
 In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw: The torch:
 Be yours to hold it high.
 If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
 In Flanders fields.

Colonel John McCrae.

THE ODE TO THE FALLEN

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end, against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning
We will remember them.

FROMELLES - 50th ANNIVERSARY Sydney Ceremony Arranged

To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Battle of Fromelles, the 5th Division A.I.F. will hold a Commemoration Parade at the Anzac Memorial, Hyde Park, on Tuesday, July 19, at 11 a.m.

The Parade will take the form of a March of 400 yards. It is symbolic of the 400 yards of "No-Man's Land", crossed under heavy fire to attain the objective at Fromelles.

All Ex-Servicemen of the 5th Division, 1st A.I.F., are asked to assemble at the Archibald Memorial Fountain, Hyde Park, and the 400 yards March will be from there to the Pool of Remembrance, where a wreath will be placed on the Anzac Memorial.

It is expected that many serving members of this famous Division from W.W.I will come from all parts of the State to take part in possibly the last Parade of this nature.

The historical Ceremony will commemorate the night of July 19-20, 1916, when the 5th Australian Division carried out a gigantic raid at Fromelles in Flanders.

It was the first occasion on which Australian Troops in France in the 1st World War were committed to a major battle, and also the first occasion on which the 5th Division went into action.

It was a most tragic event for the Division because the casualties were very heavy. Those who are left have organised this Ceremony to specially commemorate the memory of those who fell on the blood-soaked fields of Fromelles.

The joint Secretaries of the 5th Division, 1st A.I.F. Association, are Messrs. A. L. Brown (phone 99-2910) and W. A. Mason (phone 59-2034).

Both have appealed to all ex-members of the 5th Division to attend this Parade, and welcome any enquiries that ex-members wish to make.

Mr. Mason said that the Association expected between 1,200 and 1,500 members to take part.

Fifty years ago these men with serious faces were young Diggers of the Fifth Division writing new history for Australia when its troops went into Battle in France for the first time. At the service to commemorate the Battle of Fromelles in Hyde Park, Sydney, on July 19, they stood bare-headed in the rain, their faces showing the years in between as they remembered the bloody battle fifty years ago which caused Australia its highest casualties.

FROMELLES ANNIVERSARY PARADE

5th DIVISION'S CEREMONY

More than 500 former members of the 5th Division, 1st A.I.F., commemorated in July, the 50th Anniversary of their first and most tragic major battle in France.

During the nights of July 19-20, 1916, the 5th Australian Division carried out a gigantic raid at Fromelles in Flanders and suffered the heaviest losses ever known by Australian troops in such a short period of time.

It was the first occasion on which Australian troops in France in the first World War were committed to a major battle and the first time the 5th Division did go into action.

On the blood-soaked fields of Flanders, the Division suffered 5,513 casualties in a terrific and grim battle.

There were barely 300 survivors after Fromelles but they were later joined by 500 other officers and men of the 5th Division who had fought elsewhere in France. At this year's ceremony, the serious faces of the men who did battle 50 years ago were most evident as they marched through the rainy weather in Hyde Park to honour the dead.

The marchers, still proudly carrying the banners of the fighting 5th of the 1st A.I.F. marched through Hyde Park and lined the Pool of Remembrance whilst wreaths were placed on the Hyde Park War Memorial.

Brigadiers A. Smith and H. Bachtold and Major-General A. Beavis laid wreaths assisted by Mr. Arthur Hall, a V.C. winner of the 5th Division who comes from Coolabah, N.S.W.
